From:	ehud barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
To:	Barak Nili Priell <nilipriell@gmail.com>
CC:
Date:	Fri, 1/24/2014 5:57:18 PM
Subject:	Fwd: Mongolia Advisory Board meeting - Today, 6pm (Davos time)

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: Camilla Reksten-Monsen <reksten@ipinst.org>
Date: January 24, 2014 at 15:12:05 GMT+2
To: Ehud Barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>, Nili Barak <nilipr@netvision.net.il>
Subject: Re: Mongolia Advisory Board meeting - Today, 6pm (Davos time)

Hi Mr. Barak,
Just wanted to confirm the number we will be calling you on for the meeting today – is +972 50-629-8888 the best number to reach you on?
We will call at approximately 5.45pm Swiss time (11.45am EST).
Thanks,
Camilla

From: Camilla Reksten-Monsen <reksten@ipinst.org>
Date: Friday, 24 January 2014 14:02
Subject: Mongolia Advisory Board meeting - Today, 6pm (Davos time)

Dear all,

The meeting with the President of Mongolia will take place today, at 6pm local time, in the presidential suite at the Intercontinental Hotel in Davos, Switzerland.

The agenda will cover the topics that the President of Mongolia wishes to discuss with the members of the Advisory Board. These points will be further developed into a concept note that will be drafted by IPI, in close coordination with the members of the Board, over the next 4 months. The concept note will form the basis of an action plan for Mongolia, to be completed in the next 3 years.

The agenda items of today's inaugural meeting of the Advisory Board are:

1) Raising Mongolia's international profile, taking into account its history, transition from dictatorship to democracy in the past twenty years, and vast potential.
2) Mongolia's social welfare programs, to the benefit of the people.
3) Mongolia's fiscal policies and macroeconomic tools, including the structure and functions of the sovereign fund and its investment portfolio.
4) Mongolia's "Third Neighbors" policy, with proposals for further development of this cornerstone in the country's foreign policy.

5) Recommendations related to the stability of its democracy and the regional security context, based on further development of Mongolia's democratic and human rights agenda for the people's well-being and security.

On the first item, Terje will speak on the possibilities he sees in this field.

On the second item Kjell Magne might sketch some possibilities based on the Norwegian model.

On the third item, Larry and Jeff might explore and ask questions about how these items today are handled by the Mongolian government and might offer some preliminary thoughts.

On the fourth item, Kevin will explore Mongolia's relationship with its two neighboring countries, Russia and China, and enquire about the Mongolian third neighbors policy.

On the fifth item, Ehud may ask questions regarding the current situation and discuss possibilities in this field.
Warm regards,
Terje

Participants (in-person or via conference call):

Tsakhiagiin Elbegdorj, President of Mongolia
Lundeg Purevsuren, National Security and Foreign Policy Advisor to the President of Mongolia
Ehud Barak, Israeli politician
Kjell Magne Bondevik, President, the Oslo Center for Peace and Human Rights
Jeffrey Epstein, Financier
Kevin Rudd, former Prime Minister of Australia
Larry Summers, Charles W. Eliot University Professor of Harvard University
Terje Rød-Larsen, President of IPI
Andrea Pfanzelter, Director of IPI Vienna Office
Walter Kemp, Director of Europe & Central Asia, IPI